

Foreign national criteria

The global high-net-worth market is offering more opportunity than ever! In 2017, its population increased by one million and total assets grew by 10% to reach $70 trillion.¹

John Hancock is a leader in offering life insurance to high-net-worth ($5MM+) foreign nationals with strong US connections. To establish a US connection, clients must demonstrate to John Hancock's satisfaction one or more of the US Nexus criteria, along with each of the other factors listed below. Underwriting reserves the right to request evidence supporting qualification of foreign national candidates.

1 US Nexus

The client must present US interests that would be protected by the purchase of the insurance. The extent of the client's US interests must be substantial relative to the amount of insurance applied for. Evidence of insurance need may include the following:

- US real estate ownership
- US business interests/employment
- Presence of immediate family members in the US
- US investment holdings with a minimum deposit of $200,000 directly titled to the proposed insured (where a separate financial presence exists — see section 3 below)

2 Physical US presence

The client must demonstrate a regular and recurring physical presence within the US, related to the US insurance need. The length and purpose of the client's US stays will be taken into consideration. Presence in the US of under 15 days per year on a recurring basis will not be considered.

3 Financial US presence

The client must demonstrate a substantial US financial presence. The extent and nature of the client's US assets will be taken into consideration. The client must have a minimum of $200k or 25% of the coverage amount applied for in US assets that are directly titled to the client or to a US entity connected to the client.

4 US source of funds/policy ownership

Premiums must be paid from a US account directly connected and titled to the client. Designating foreign entities (e.g., trusts, holding companies) or individuals other than immediate family members as owner or beneficiary of the contract will not be considered. All designations are subject to underwriting review.
