

To our Distribution Partners:

Thrivent has made some enhancements to the partner.thrivent.com site available to appointed producers. Please note that most of these same features are already built-in to the illustrations available in the e-App on iGo. The main difference is that the iGo version can be accessed by anyone, not just appointed producers.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

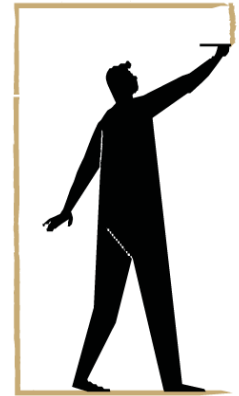

Melanie Hertz

LTC Illustration Changes

Enhancements to Illustration Launch Page on partner.thrivent.com

What's Changing: The launch page will transition from the "Create New Business Illustration" page to the "Product Illustration Center" page. Here you can create a new LTC quote or open one previously saved.

Key Features of New Launch Page:

- Agent name displays at the top of the launch page based on login id used
- Direct access to the LTC illustration
- Case Library - save and easily sort your saved illustrations by a variety of fields.

Accessing the Partner Site

Access is only available to agents currently appointed with Thrivent as it requires a Thrivent Producer Code to access the site. Use the login information you received when you received your appointment confirmation and producer code. If you do not remember your login, contact Thrivent Technology Service Center (TSC), provide your producer code and have them re-set your access.
